Discussion Items	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> A. Quarterly JEM Report Director Bachewicz introduced JEM Director of Operations Jerica Cyr and Area Manager Alyssa Moore who reported on the 2019 summer season at Coral Cove Water Park (see attached). Commissioner Sokolowski remarked about the amount of time the water park was closed in June and asked about the percentage based on the whole season. Commissioner Gramann stated how grateful she is for the lifeguards rescuing the distressed swimmers and that none of the rescues were more serious.

	B. Coral Cove Water Park Seasonal Report Director Bachewicz introduced Liz Blake, Aquatics Supervisor, who reported on the 2019 season at Coral Cove Water Park (see attached report). Commissioner Gramann asked why the membership revenue decreased so much. Director Bachewicz stated the wet spring and significantly below average temperatures during June and July impacted membership sales. Commissioner Sokolowski asked if Groupon impacts revenue. Supervisor Blake replied that it could in some ways by providing discounted rates however it also draws non-residents to the facility who may not have visited if not for the Groupon offer. We are seeing many users visiting different water parks instead of going to the same park day after day. Commissioner Gramann asked if staff has ever looked into a “park hopper” plan? She also noted that as the landscaping has grown around Coral Cove, it is less visible for passersby; should shrubs be trimmed back to draw attention to the facility? Commissioner Bird asked about the swim lesson banner on the water park fence. Director Bachewicz said that banner was recently placed outside CCWP but didn’t realize it looks like a remnant of summer we forgot to take down; staff will address. C. Summer Recreation Report Director Bachewicz reviewed the Summer Recreation Report (see attached). Commissioner Del Preto noted the increase in net revenue compared to 2017 and 2018. He asked about revenue from McCaslin. Executive Director Reuter noted that we have been talking about increasing tournament fees because we have become a premier destination. Commissioner Jeffery noted that two summer soccer camps were both scheduled during the same week. Director Bachewicz acknowledged we will be more aware of that next summer. D.
